Istria, Rovinj area

For sale is this old autochthonous Istrian estate near beautiful Rovinj, located on a plot of 1355m2 and an existing building of 200m2.

Electricity and water are already connected to the existing building, and there is also a small tavern and covered parking for cars on the plot itself. The buildings themselves require a complete renovation with one presented conceptual solution that can be implemented on this spacious plot.

Future owners can renovate the building according to their own wishes, with the construction of a swimming pool in the yard, from which you can see the sea and a part of the city of Rovinj.

The attractive location and potential that this property offers is a unique opportunity for visionary investors.
