Istria, Poreč

For sale is a modern apartment on the first floor of a high-quality new development, located in an exceptionally desirable area just 1 km from the sea and 2 km from the center of Poreč. The peaceful residential surroundings and high construction standards make this property an excellent choice for living, holidays, or investment.

The apartment has a total area of 109.58 m² and offers a functional layout with contemporary design: a spacious living room connected to the kitchen and dining area, two bedrooms, and two bathrooms. The master bedroom has its own en-suite bathroom, while the second bathroom is located next to the additional bedroom and living area. All rooms are equipped with air conditioning for maximum comfort throughout the year.

Technical features and customization options:

Possibility of installing electric underfloor heating during the current construction phase (at extra cost)

Choice of ceramics within a specified budget

Bathrooms equipped with premium Grohe and Geberit sanitary fittings and installations

Thermal insulation: 10 cm graphite insulation ensuring high energy efficiency and reduced energy consumption

High-quality joinery with HERO electric shutter system and integrated mosquito screens
